COURSE OUTCOMES DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

|     | F. Y. B.A.  |  |
|-----|---|--|
|     | SEM-I   |  |
|     | Communication skills in English   |  |
| CO1 | The course trains students in improving their grammar, spelling, style and tone,  |  |
|     | by enhancing their writing and speaking skills in English.  |  |
| CO2 | Exposure to 'Reading skills' helps learner to equip themselves to understand  |  |
|     | concepts and arguments, differentiating between facts from opinion, extracting  |  |
|     | relevant information with logic and cohesion.   |  |
| CO3 | Exposure in studying formal correspondence, helps learners in undertaking   |  |
|     | effective communication through letter writing such as job application letters,   |  |
|     | statement of purpose, RTI, etc.   |  |
| CO4 | Learners are capable of interpreting 'technical data' /information from maps, pie charts, table, line graphs and flow chart, etc. enhancing effective communication       |  |
| CO5 | Exposure to the Essay writing through modes of discourse like Expositor,  |  |
|     | Persuasive, Analytical and reflective/descriptive techniques, helps learner to  |  |
|     | express ideas with cohesion and logic   |  |
| CO6 | Learners are equipped in developing independent thought process, ideas and  |  |
|     | process the analytical skills.  |  |
|     | SEM II  |  |
|     | Communication skills in English   |  |
| CO1 | Learners are capable of developing vocabulary building like style of writing, articulation, persuasiveness, erudition, fluency, logic for effective communication skills. |  |
| CO2 | Editing and Summarizing training intend to equip the learner to present the   |  |
|     | error free, precise and coherent matter.  |  |
| CO3 | Learners are capable of communicating on national or international digital  |  |
|     | platforms by following email etiquette for effective communication.   |  |
| CO4 | Exposure to the discourse of 'Report Writing' enhances amongst the learners the   |  |
|     | value of factual information / data presentation in the various corporate and non-  |  |
|     | corporate fields.   |  |

| CO5  | Exposure to various creative writing forms, equips learner to undertake fiction and nonfiction writings by using creativity and undertaking healthy literary experiments.   |  |
|------|---|--|
|      | SEM-I   |  |
|      | English (Optional)  |  |
| Pape | r –I Introduction to Literature ( Short stories and Novels )  Course Code:UAENG 101   |  |
| CO1  | The course exposes the learner to 'basic' introduction to English Literature' at the 'initial stages'.  |  |
| C02  | Learner are trained to understand the core forms in Literary Genres , and to decode /interpret the given literary works.   |  |
| CO3  | Exposed to the technicality' of literary work, learners develop the critical analytical skills  |  |
| CO4  | Learners are in a position to exercise better sense of analytical skills since they are trained to focuses on types of Novels with distinguished features   |  |
| CO5  | Studying genres like Short Stories (British and American authors) and Novels (Victorian to Modern Age) enables the learner to sensitize himself about contemporary literary movements and its impact on literature. |  |
|      | SEM-II  |  |
| Pape | English (Optional) Paper I Introduction to Literature ( Poetry and Drama ) Course Code: UAENG 201   |  |
|      |   |  |
| CO1  | Exposure to the type of 'Verse' enable learner to undertake evaluation of poems with proper analytical skills.  |  |
| CO2  | Studying Drama, in context to the proper evaluation of the contemporary 'literary Age/ Era' and the 'type' of drama, enable learners to give better outcome in analysis.  |  |
| CO3  | Training in 'Verse' analysis Verse' (Elizabethan age to Victorian Age). helps the learner to develop 'Techniques' of Poetry Analysis.   |  |

|  | SEM III  |
|--|--|
| English ( Ancillary ) Paper II Indian Literature in English( Essay , Novel and short stories) Course Code : UAENG301 |  |
| CO1 .  | Exposure to nonfiction essays by Indian English authors, sensitize the learner on issues like India's partition, evil social practices in society, rise of Indian feminism, issues of the Indian Diaspora etc.   |
| CO2  | By studying contemporary socio-political, religious and cultural upheavals in India society, the learner is capable of analyzing nonfiction essays critically.   |
| CO3  | By re-visiting Indian historical events and Literary Movements of 20 th century India, the learner is able to undertake a literary analysis of various genres in a new perspectives.  |
| CO4  | The learner is able to critically evaluate literary genres like novels and short stories in context with an element of "Indianness" and various themes associated with 'Indian ethos'.   |
| •  | SEM III  |
|  | English ( Ancillary )  |
| Paper III  | American Literature (Short story and Novel)  |
| CO1  | Exposure to the study of various contemporary American Literature Movements helps the learner to understand its impacts on the development of American fiction.  |
| CO2  | The learner is capable of evaluating critically the work of American fiction dealing with the themes of American ethos, racial tension, social and political issues in contemporary American society.  |
| CO3  | The learner is exposed to Short Stories as a literary genre which enables him to sensitize himself about the contemporary socio-cultural and political issues (rise of feminism, Afro-American identity crisis, anti-Semitism, issues of racial and social pressure faced by Indian Diaspora etc.) |

|       | SEM IV  |
|-------|---|
|       | English ( Ancillary )   |
| Pap   | per II Indian Literature in English-( Essay , Poetry and Drama )  |
| •     | Course Code : UAENG401  |
| CO1   | Learner develops analytical skills and logic while interpreting the nonfiction essays dealing with the themes like Dalit writing, rise of regional drama, feminism etc      |
| CO2   | Exposure to the Dalit literacy movement in post-colonial India, enables the learner to study social and economic factors which shaped this form of literature.              |
| CO3   | Rise of feminism in India and it reflection in Indian English Literature, enables the learner to identify major women writers and study their work.                         |
| CO4   | Learner is exposed to the factors responsible for the rise of regional drama and proper techniques to be followed to write a successful drama                               |
| CO5   | Learner is equipped to analyze critically, the post-colonial 'Verse' which deals with themes of social and economic divide, Indian values, social issues etc.               |
| CO6   | Learner is equipped to make a critical analysis of drama as a literary genre, in context to post-colonial changing social and moral values.                                 |
|       | SEM-IV  |
|       | English ( Ancillary )   |
| Paper | III American Literature (Poetry and Drama)  |
|       | Course Code: UAENG402   |
| CO1   | Learner is capable to analyze the socio-cultural, political and economic aspects which shaped American Literature.  |
| CO2   | Learner is exposed to the study of various Literary Movements in American Literature which enable them to evaluate genres like Drama and Poetry.                            |
| CO3   | Learner is equipped to analyze the connection between the deformed sense of American Dream and its impact on American Literature, exclusively on drama as a literary genre. |

| CO4 Learner is trained to study the rising Literary Movements in Europe which influenced American literature.  CO5 Exposure to Afro-American poetry sensitizes the learner to the adverse impact of racial discrimination on American society and American Literature.  CO6 Exposure to Confessional poetry makes the learner aware about the problem of depression in contemporary American society.  T.Y.B.A.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE Paper IV 16th to 18th Century English Literature - I COURSE CODE: UAENG 501  CO1 Learner is capable of evaluating various socio-political, cultural economic and literary aspects during Elizabethan (1550-1603) and Jacobean period (1603-1650) which shaped Literary Movements like Renaissance, Humanism and Reformation,  CO2 Learner is equipped to undertake a critical analysis of Elizabethan and Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets and Metaphysical poetry) and drama.  CO3 Learner is ready to use secondary sources to elucidate literary text and poems in cultural and historical context  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE 1 Literary Criticism - I COURSE CODE: UAENG 502  CO1 The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE Translation Studies and Practice - I |     |   |
|---|-----|---|
| impact of racial discrimination on American society and American Literature.  Exposure to Confessional poetry makes the learner aware about the problem of depression in contemporary American society.  T.Y.B.A.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  Paper IV  16 th to 18 th Century English Literature - I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 501  CO1  Learner is capable of evaluating various socio-political, cultural. economic and literary aspects during Elizabethan (1550-1603) and Jacobean period (1603-1650) which shaped Literary Movements like Renaissance, Humanism and Reformation,  CO2  Learner is equipped to undertake a critical analysis of Elizabethan and Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets and Metaphysical poetry) and drama.  CO3  Learner is ready to use secondary sources to elucidate literary text and poems in cultural and historical context  ENGLISH LITERATURE Literary Criticism - I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  CO1  The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2  Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3  Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4  Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5  By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  | CO4 | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·   |
| T.Y.B.A.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  Paper IV  16 th to 18 th Century English Literature - I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 501  CO1  Learner is capable of evaluating various socio-political, cultural. economic and literary aspects during Elizabethan (1550-1603) and Jacobean period (1603-1650) which shaped Literary Movements like Renaissance, Humanism and Reformation,  CO2  Learner is equipped to undertake a critical analysis of Elizabethan and Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets and Metaphysical poetry) and drama.  CO3  Learner is ready to use secondary sources to elucidate literary text and poems in cultural and historical context  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE Literary Criticism - I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  CO1  The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2  Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3  Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4  Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5  By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6  The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  | CO5 | impact of racial discrimination on American society and American  |
| ENGLISH LITERATURE  Paper IV  16th to 18th Century English Literature - I COURSE CODE: UAENG 501  CO1  Learner is capable of evaluating various socio-political, cultural, economic and literary aspects during Elizabethan (1550-1603) and Jacobean period (1603-1650) which shaped Literary Movements like Renaissance, Humanism and Reformation,  CO2  Learner is equipped to undertake a critical analysis of Elizabethan and Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets and Metaphysical poetry) and drama.  CO3  Learner is ready to use secondary sources to elucidate literary text and poems in cultural and historical context  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE Literary Criticism - I COURSE CODE: UAENG 502  CO1  The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2  Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3  Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4  Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5  By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6  The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  | CO6 | Exposure to Confessional poetry makes the learner aware about the problem of depression in contemporary American society,             |
| ENGLISH LITERATURE  Paper IV  16th to 18th Century English Literature - I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 501  CO1  Learner is capable of evaluating various socio-political, cultural. economic and literary aspects during Elizabethan (1550-1603) and Jacobean period (1603-1650) which shaped Literary Movements like Renaissance, Humanism and Reformation,  CO2  Learner is equipped to undertake a critical analysis of Elizabethan and Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets and Metaphysical poetry) and drama.  CO3  Learner is ready to use secondary sources to elucidate literary text and poems in cultural and historical context  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  Literary Criticism - I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  CO1  The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2  Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3  Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4  Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5  By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6  The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  |     | T.Y.B.A.  |
| Paper IV 16th to 18th Century English Literature - I COURSE CODE : UAENG 501  CO1   |     | SEM V   |
| COURSE CODE :UAENG 501  CO1 Learner is capable of evaluating various socio-political, cultural. economic and literary aspects during Elizabethan (1550-1603) and Jacobean period (1603-1650) which shaped Literary Movements like Renaissance, Humanism and Reformation,  CO2 Learner is equipped to undertake a critical analysis of Elizabethan and Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets and Metaphysical poetry) and drama.  CO3 Learner is ready to use secondary sources to elucidate literary text and poems in cultural and historical context  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE Literary Criticism – I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  CO1 The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE   |     | ENGLISH LITERATURE  |
| CO1 Learner is capable of evaluating various socio-political, cultural. economic and literary aspects during Elizabethan (1550-1603) and Jacobean period (1603-1650) which shaped Literary Movements like Renaissance, Humanism and Reformation,  CO2 Learner is equipped to undertake a critical analysis of Elizabethan and Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets and Metaphysical poetry) and drama.  CO3 Learner is ready to use secondary sources to elucidate literary text and poems in cultural and historical context  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE Literary Criticism – I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  CO1 The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE   | Pap | , ,   |
| and literary aspects during Elizabethan (1550-1603) and Jacobean period (1603-1650) which shaped Literary Movements like Renaissance, Humanism and Reformation,  CO2 Learner is equipped to undertake a critical analysis of Elizabethan and Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets and Metaphysical poetry) and drama.  CO3 Learner is ready to use secondary sources to elucidate literary text and poems in cultural and historical context  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  Paper V Literary Criticism - I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  CO1 The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE   | 604 |   |
| Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets and Metaphysical poetry) and drama.  CO3 Learner is ready to use secondary sources to elucidate literary text and poems in cultural and historical context  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE Paper V Literary Criticism – I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  CO1 The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE   | CO1 | and literary aspects during Elizabethan (1550-1603) and Jacobean period (1603-1650) which shaped Literary Movements like Renaissance, |
| SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE Literary Criticism – I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  CO1 The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses .  ENGLISH LITERATURE   | CO2 | Jacobean literature, exclusively dealing with genres of poetry (sonnets   |
| ENGLISH LITERATURE  Literary Criticism – I  COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  CO1 The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses .  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  | CO3 | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·   |
| CO1 The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE   |     | SEM V   |
| COURSE CODE :UAENG 502  The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses.  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE   |     | ENGLISH LITERATURE  |
| CO1 The study of major 'literary devices', guides the learner to interpret a literary work in a comprehensive sense.  CO2 Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses .  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  | I   | ·   |
| Learner is capable of understanding the nature and function of literature by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  CO3 Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses .  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  |     |   |
| by contextualizing it with the value of imagination and imitation.  Learner is equipped to focus on the aesthetic value of literary work by in depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4  Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5  By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6  The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses .  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE   | CO1 |   |
| depth study of the nature of literary criticism.  CO4 Learner is capable of evaluating a literary work with its merits and demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  CO5 By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  CO6 The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses .  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  | CO2 |   |
| demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.  By developing sound knowledge in the given subject, a learner is capable of becoming an ideal critic.  The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses .  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE   | CO3 | 1 11  |
| of becoming an ideal critic.  The 20 marks project helps a learner to enhance scansion skills in studying and decoding the technicality of Verses .  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE  | CO4 | demerits after studying the function of literary criticism.   |
| studying and decoding the technicality of Verses .  SEM V  ENGLISH LITERATURE   | CO5 |   |
| ENGLISH LITERATURE  | CO6 |   |
|   |     | SEM V   |
|   | Pap |   |
|   |     |   |

|     | COURSE CODE :UNENG503B (20 MARKS PROJECT )  |
|-----|---|
| CO1 | Learner is capable of undertaking translation practice of non - fiction texts at primary level.   |
| CO2 | Learner is equipped to explore and apply the theories in Indian Translation with discretion to translate from Source Language Text and Target Language.   |
| CO3 | Overcoming language barriers, a learner can translate non-fictional text, which is critical and necessary for effective communication.  |
| CO4 | A 20 marks project on Translation will enable a learner to translate information, knowledge and ideas .   |
|     | SEM V   |
| _   | ENGLISH LITERATURE  |
| Pap | er VII 19th Century English Literature - I COURSE CODE: UAENG504  |
| CO1 | Learner is able to analyze 19 th century literary work by contextualizing cultural movements like Romanticism.   |
| CO2 | Learner is capable of distinguishing types, features and developments of various of genres of 19 th century English literature including fiction, poetry and essays.                   |
|     | Learner is capable of analyzing literary works, contextualizing aspects of medievalism, pantheism and German transcendentalism.   |
| CO3 | Learner can evaluate various aspects of European Cultural Movements which impacted 19 th century English Literature.   |
| CO4 | Learner can undertake critical analyses of the 'Verses', based on their forms, technicality and the versatile themes.   |
| CO5 | Learner can critically assess 19 th century 'essays', bringing better understanding of contemporary socio -political and cultural norms.   |
| CO6 | Learner is ready to use secondary sources to assess 'fiction' and 'poetry' as literary genres, in context of culture and History .  |
|     | SEM V   |
|     | ENGLISH LITERATURE  |
| PA  | PER VIII 20th Century British Literature - I COURSE CODE: UAENG505  |
| CO1 | Learner is equipped to understand socio-political, cultural, economic and   |
|     | political aspects which shaped 20 th century British Literature.   |
| CO2 | Learner is in a position to elucidate the connection between the various literary movements and the elements / factors which shaped the structure of 20 th century British literature. |

| CO3  | Learner is able to connect with contemporary political upheaval in order to undertake critical evaluation of genres like poetry and fiction which deal with themes like war, aesthetic beauty and truth, political satire etc. |
|--|--|
| CO4  | Learner is equipped to study secondary sources in context with literary movements which took place in 20 th century British society.  |
|  | SEM V  |
|  | ENGLISH LITERATURE   |
| Paper  | X-D Literature of Protest— I  COURSE CODE:UAENG506D  |
| 20MAR  | KS PROJCET   |
| CO1  | Learner understands the socio-political and cultural elements which shaped the rise of Dalit. Minority / Tribal literature in regional language in India.  |
| CO2  | Learner is exposed to historical, socio-cultural, economical factors which initiated the rise of Dalit leaders and political upheavals in India .  |
| CO3  | Learner can interpret the constant theme of "protest" reflected in Dalit/minority literature, a result of socio- cultural injustice.   |
| CO4  | Exposure to the history of slavery of blacks in USA, enables a learner to critically evaluate Afro-American experience in literature by contextualizing it with the racial discrimination.                                     |
| CO5  | Learners are equipped to illustrate Dalit and Tribal experiences by studying the layers of the evils of caste system in Indian social set up.  |
| CO6  | Learns are capable of extending the study of the literature of protest by undertaking the comparative studies between Dalit literature and Afro – American Literature.   |
| CO7  | By undertaking the literature based project work, learners are capable of exclusively studying the Dalit / minority / tribal experiences in the specific literary work   |
|  | SEM VI   |
| ENGLISH LITERATURE   |  |
| PAPER IV 16 th to 18 th century English Literature - IICOURSE CODE : UAENG 601 |  |
| CO1  |  |
| CO1  | Exposed to features of Restoration Period, the Learner can observe socio-cultural and political norms to evaluate contemporary literature  |
| CO2  | The learner is able to study and analyze the types of Restoration drama in context of major political and literary events of the age .   |

| CO3  | Learner can critically evaluate poetry as a literary genre in the form of epic, mock epic etc.   |  |
|--|--|--|
| CO4  | Learner is equipped to study the Socio – cultural and political factors during the Neo-classical Period which shaped the rise of Periodical essay and fiction.                         |  |
|  | SEM VI   |  |
|  | ENGLISH LITERATURE   |  |
|  | PAPER V Literary Criticism – II  COURSE CODE: UAENG602   |  |
|  | COURSE CODE : UAENGBUZ   |  |
| CO1  | Exposed to literary and cultural movements, a learner will have in-depth awareness about their features and impacts on the literary products of respective eras.                       |  |
| CO2  | Detailed study of various critical approaches helps a learner to understand their functions and features that should be considered while making a critical response to literary works. |  |
| CO3  | Critical approaches helps a learner to understand the various methods to be used for a critical response to given literary work.   |  |
| CO4  | Critical Appreciation of an unseen piece of literary work, enable learners to do its analysis by contextualizing the critical approaches.  |  |
|  | SEM VI   |  |
|  | ENGLISH LITERATURE   |  |
| PAPI   | Translation Studies : Theory and Practice -II  |  |
| (20 MA                                       | COURSE CODE :UAENG 603BRKS PROJECT )   |  |
| CO1  | Learner is capable of undertaking translation practice of literary texts at primary level.   |  |
| CO2  | With a complete knowledge of the types of translation methods, a learner can achieve efficient, effective and empathetic translation.  |  |
| CO3  | A leaner is capable of identifying the problems in the translation process of various literary genres.   |  |
| CO4  | Learner is equipped for translation job opportunities in the industry.   |  |
| CO 5   | 20 marks project on Translation enable learners to translate information, knowledge and ideas.   |  |
|  | SEM VI   |  |
| ENGLISH LITERATURE                           |  |  |
| PAPER VII 19th Century English Literature-II |  |  |
|  | COURSE CODE : UAENG 604  |  |
| C01  | Learner can critically analyze literary genres like poetry, fiction in context of the Impact of Industrial Revolution  |  |
| CO2  | Learner can critically analyze literary works of the Victorian Age with in depth study of the understanding of the 'Victorian Dilemma'   |  |

| CO3        | Learner has learnt the cultural and literary movements which shaped the structure of the Victorian Literature   |
|------------|---|
| CO4        | Learner is capable of undertaking a critical analysis of Victorian poetry contextualizing pre-Raphaelitism.   |
| CO5        | Learner can make a critical analysis of Victorian 'essays' contextualizing intellectual social and cultural movements of the Victorian age.   |
| CO6        | Learner is sensitized on the adverse impact of industrial revolution on the middle and lower middle class milieu.   |
| I          | SEM VI  |
| PAPER VIII | ENGLISH LITERATURE  20th Century British Literature II  |
|            | COURSE CODE: UAENG605   |
| CO1        | Learner has studied 20 th century British Literary Movement vis-a-vis the impact of the two World Wars and the socio-cultural and economic upheavals, which shaped them. |
| CO2        | Learner can critically evaluate British fiction with better understanding of the Literary Movements.  |
| C03        | Learner is capable of interpreting feminist literature through a neo-feminist perspective.  |
| CO4        | Learners are able to analyze the multilayers of psychological novels with the use of "Stream of consciousness Techniques".  |
| CO5        | Learners can critically analyze science fiction, considering the profound impact of science and technology on 20 th century British literature                           |
| CO6        | Learners can critically evaluate the work of Indian authors who dominated the era of postmodern fiction in British Literary History   |
| CO7        | With comprehensive understanding of different political ideologies, a learner can critically evaluate fiction in the form of 'Political Satire'.                                    |
| CO8        | Learner is capable of critically evaluating the Short story as a literary genre; dealing with themes, offering a glimpse into contemporary British society                          |
| CO9        | Learners are equipped to evaluate the literary text with the help of secondary sources.   |
|            |   |

|       | S EM VI   |
|-------|---|
|       | ENGLISH LITERATURE  |
| Paper | IX-D Literature of Protest – II   |
|       | COURSE CODE:UAENG606D   |
| 20MAR | KKS PROJECT   |
| CO1   | Learner is able to interpret the Dalit experiences in Dalit / Minority literature which is written in regional languages dealing with genres like poetry, novel drama, novel and short stories. |
| CO2   | Learner can critically evaluate Dalit poetry contextualizing it through Feminist perspectives, and the issues of Dalit Identity.  |
| CO3   | Learner will be able to evaluate the Afro – American fiction, in the context of atrocities against Black Race in USA.  |
| CO4   | Learner can study and interpret Dalit experiences based on Dalit fiction in the form of genres like autobiography, memoirs etc.   |
| CO5   | Exposure to the Dalit / minority/ tribal fictions which are translated into English, helps the learner to take interest in translation and comparative studies.                                 |
|       | ****  |