COURSE OUTCOMES (2019-20)

SUBJECT: POLITICS

	F. Y. B.A. SEM-I
PAPER	I Course Title: Indian Political System
	The Constitutional Framework
CO1	The learner would be able to understand the evolution of Indian Constitution and its salient features
CO2	The learner would be able to understand the structure and functioning of the three organs of democratic government.
CO3	The learner will get introduced to political institutions and their working from the federal to grassroots levels.
CO4	The learner would comprehend the features, evolution and relationship of Fundamental Rights, Directive Principles and Fundamental Duties of Indian citizens
	SEM-II
PAPER
	olitical Process
CO1	The learner would be able to understand and analyse the strengths and limitations of federal structure of Indian Polity.  The learner would be able to understand and evaluate the trajectories of CO2	secessionist forces in India  The learner would be able to analyze various political parties in terms of their
CO2	ideological bases and programs and their role in politics India.
CO3	The learner will comprehend the Indian political scenario amidst challenges such as casteism, communalism, regionalism and linguism.
CO4	The learner would be able to understand and evaluate the trajectories of secessionist forces in India
	S.Y. B.A.
	SEM-III
P	PAPER II Course Title: Political Theory
Principle	es and Concepts of Political Theory
CO1	The subject explores extremities of man's social life
CO2	This subject helps to understand the political reality of a given system
CO3	The subject tries to comprehend theory and actual political process
CO4	It helps to understand the reconciliation between authority, legitimacy and liberty

Public Administration  CO1 Give evolution and the contemporary nature of the discipline of Public Administration  CO2 Understand the administrative theories like the scientific managemen bureaucratic and human relations  CO3 Acquaint with the basic principles of organization like hierarchy and delegation CO4 Aware with the Contemporary techniques and practices of good governance and governance  Paper: Applied Component Course Title: Introduction to Law [A.C.]  Fundamentals of Law  CO1 Classification, features and sources of law with the International Human Right discourses  CO2 Constitutional provisions and landmark judgements about Citizenship Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  CO3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrativ law  CO4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels	PAI	PER III Course Title: Public Administration
CO2 Understand the administrative theories like the scientific managemen bureaucratic and human relations  CO3 Acquaint with the basic principles of organization like hierarchy and delegation CO4 Aware with the Contemporary techniques and practices of good governance and governance  Paper: Applied Component Course Title: Introduction to Law [A.C.]  Fundamentals of Law  CO1 Classification, features and sources of law with the International Human Right discourses  CO2 Constitutional provisions and landmark judgements about Citizenship Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  CO3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrativ law  CO4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It pives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understant the pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature Administration  CO2 Understand the administrative theories like the scientific managemen bureaucratic and human relations  CO3 Acquaint with the basic principles of organization like hierarchy and delegation Aware with the Contemporary techniques and practices of good governance and governance  Paper: Applied Component Course Title: Introduction to Law [A.C.]  Fundamentals of Law  CO1 Classification, features and sources of law with the International Human Right discourses  CO2 Constitutional provisions and landmark judgements about Citizenship Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  CO3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrativ law  CO4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understant the pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature bureaucratic and human relations  CO3 Acquaint with the basic principles of organization like hierarchy and delegation CO4 Aware with the Contemporary techniques and practices of good governance and governance  Paper: Applied Component Course Title: Introduction to Law [A.C.]  Fundamentals of Law CO1 Classification, features and sources of law with the International Human Right discourses  CO2 Constitutional provisions and landmark judgements about Citizenship Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  CO3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrativ law  CO4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of th Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understan the pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at th central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	COI	1
Aware with the Contemporary techniques and practices of good governance and governance  Paper: Applied Component Course Title: Introduction to Law [A.C.]  Fundamentals of Law  Col Classification, features and sources of law with the International Human Right discourses  Co2 Constitutional provisions and landmark judgements about Citizenship Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  Co3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrativ law  Co4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  Co1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understant the pivotal shades of actual politics  Co2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  Co3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  Co1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  Co2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  Co3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	CO2	Understand the administrative theories like the scientific management, bureaucratic and human relations
Paper: Applied Component Course Title: Introduction to Law [A.C.]  Fundamentals of Law  CO1 Classification, features and sources of law with the International Human Right discourses  CO2 Constitutional provisions and landmark judgements about Citizenship Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  CO3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrative law  CO4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understand the pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	CO3	Acquaint with the basic principles of organization like hierarchy and delegation
Fundamentals of Law  CO1 Classification, features and sources of law with the International Human Right discourses  CO2 Constitutional provisions and landmark judgements about Citizenship Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  CO3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrativ law  CO4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understant the pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	CO4
CO1 Classification, features and sources of law with the International Human Right discourses  CO2 Constitutional provisions and landmark judgements about Citizenship Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  CO3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrativ law  CO4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understant the pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	Paper: A	Applied Component Course Title: Introduction to Law [A.C.]
discourses  CO2 Constitutional provisions and landmark judgements about Citizenship Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  CO3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administratively law  CO4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understant the pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	Fundame	entals of Law
Fundamental rights and Directive Principles of State Policy  CO3 The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrative law  CO4 The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understant the pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER II Course Title: Public Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	CO1	Classification, features and sources of law with the International Human Rights discourses
law	CO2
the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of the Constitution  SEM-IV  PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understanthe pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	CO3	The legislative process, and the concepts of delegated legislation, administrative
PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understanthe pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	CO4	The jurisdiction of Supreme Court and High Courts under Article 32 and 226 of the Constitution respectively, Judicial Activism under Article 39-A of the Constitution
PAPER II Course Title: Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understanthe pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature		CTENT TY
Political Values and Ideologies  CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understanthe pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
CO1 It gives panoramic view of political reality and helps the students to understanthe pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature
the pivotal shades of actual politics  CO2 It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference  CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature
CO3 It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality  PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration Indian Administration CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	CO1
PAPER III Course Title: Public Administration  Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	CO2	It helps to understand the Contending ideologies and their causal inference
Indian Administration  CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process and control mechanisms of the legislature	CO3	It enhances the quest for knowledge of political and social reality
CO1 Comprehend the Evolution, Constitutional context and district administration  CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process and control mechanisms of the legislature	PAPER	III Course Title: Public Administration
CO2 Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels  CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process and control mechanisms of the legislature	Indian A
CO3 Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process an control mechanisms of the legislature	CO1
control mechanisms of the legislature	CO2	Identify the Recruitment and training process of the higher civil servants at the central and state levels
CO4 The methods to tackle the challenges of administration as Lokpal, Lokayukta	CO3	Figure out the Details of the financial administration as budgetary process and control mechanisms of the legislature
	CO4	The methods to tackle the challenges of administration as Lokpal, Lokayukta

Paper: A	Applied Component Course Title: Introduction to Law [A.C.]
Laws regarding Indian Citizens
CO1	Awareness about legislations and cases of Indian Contract Act, Consumer Protection Act and Intellectual Property Rights
CO2	Understand the Family laws pertaining to Hindus, Muslims; and Uniform Civil Code
CO3	Comprehend the Laws regarding women and children like POSH,2013; POCSO,2012.
CO4	Get an insight of Cyber and environmental laws
	T.Y.B.A.
	SEM-V
	PER IV Course Title: International Relations
World P	olitics
CO1	It gives an idea of the emergence of the state system and global world order
CO2	Students will be able to grasp with the underpinning of the process polarization existed at global level
CO3	The undergraduates will be able to investigate the nature of conflict and security prevalent at international level
CO4	The learner can elucidate the rubric of international political economy
PAPI	ER V Course Title: Political Thought
	Political Thought
CO1	Gain knowledge about the concept of Modern State and the evolution of State
CO2	Understand the path breaking ideas of liberty and justice
CO3	Acquaint with the Marxian concept of Revolution and Hegelian concept of hegemony
CO4	Awareness about the 20 th century ideologies of Feminism and Multiculturalism
	R VI A Course Title: Political Process in Modern Maharashtra of Modern Maharashtra
CO1	The learner would be able to understand the contributions of visionary intellectuals and social reformers in the making of the Maharashtra before and after independence.
CO2	The learner would be able to critically investigate the issues of uneven development of various regions of Maharashtra.
CO3	The learner will get introduced to political institutions and their working in Maharashtra.
CO4	The learner would comprehend the impact of various caste groups on politics of

PAPEI	R VII B Course Title: Understanding Politics through Films
Politics	and Films
CO1	Relevance and correlation of concepts in politics like power, authority and war with films
CO2	Get knowledge about films as reflection of society and culture
CO3	Comprehend the evolution of Indian cinema and the regional cinema in last 110 years
CO4	Understand the traumatic event of the partition of India and Pakistan in 1947
D. DET
PAPE	R: VIII (B) Course Title: American Political System
America	n Constitution and Institutions
CO1	It introduces the learners to the constitution of USA
CO2	Theoretical underpinning of federal system is introduced to the students
CO3	Students are acquainted with the undertones of American federation
CO4	The educatees will be able to fathom out basic academic subtleties linked with the US legislature
Paper I	X(A) Course Title: Local Government with Special Reference to Maharashtra
Rural Lo	ocal Government
CO1	The learner would be able to understand the Constitutional and statutory framework of Rural Local Self Governments/Panchayat Raj Institutions in India.
CO2	The learner would be understanding the structure and functions of the three-tier system of Panchayati Raj in Maharashtra.
CO3	The learner will be able to critically appraise the nature as well as effectiveness of rural development policies and schemes framed by Central and state governments.
CO4	The learner would get a deeper understanding of major challenges before Panchayati Raj Institutes
	SEM-VI
PA	PER IV Course Title: International Relations
	World Politics
CO1	It attempts to study the general and diplomatic history of nation state system
CO2	The mentee can decipher the undercurrents of foreign policy and diplomacy

CO3	It will help the students to get conversant with the subtle shades of international organizations
CO4	The students can unearth the foundational stems of India's relations with its neighbours.
D A	APER V Course Title: Political Thought
	APER V Course Title: Political Thought Political Thought
CO1	Insight of the ideology Indian thinkers about the political concepts like state,
COI	nation and nationalism
CO2	Understand the radical and rational means of social reforms
CO3	Appraise the democratic socialism
	ER VI A Course Title: Political Process in Modern Maharashtra nants of Politics of Maharashtra
CO1	The learner would be able to know nuances of relationship between urban and rural business class and politics of Maharashtra.
CO2	The learner would get introduced to various political parties, their ideological bases and programs and their role in politics of Maharashtra.
CO3	The learner will comprehend the issues of tribals and farmers in Maharashtra.
CO4	The learner would be able to appreciate the role of various Civil society organizations in Maharashtra
PAPE	R VII B Course Title: Understanding Politics through
	g Indian Politics through Films
CO1	Appraise the problems and issues of nation building
CO2	Assess the developmental models and debates
CO3	Review the people's movements for environment protection and right to information
CO4	Acquaint with threats to security like terrorism and Naxalism
PAPER	R VIII (B) Course Title: American Political System
	Process in the United States
CO1	It helps to understand actual political process of USA
CO2	Landmark decisions of US supreme court is studied in this paper
CO3	The course entails the elementary and substantial facts about the electoral politics of US

CO4	Students may be able to delve into the bolstering inspiration behind civil rights movement in US
Paper IX(A) Course Title: Local Government with Special Reference to Maharashtra
Urban Lo	ocal Government
CO1	The learner would be able to understand the Constitutional and statutory framework of Urban Local Self Governments in India.
CO2	The learner would understand the structure and functions of various types of municipal systems in Maharashtra.
CO3	The learner will be able to critically appraise the nature as well as effectiveness of urban development policies and schemes framed by Central and state governments
CO4	The learner would get a deeper understanding of major challenges before Municipal administration and solutions thereof	