9. Important Takeaways:

- a. The thrust of all four previous programs on IPR, was to provide information or theoretical knowledge base on different forms, aspect and dimesions of IPR, However the present program was more like workshp giving practical knowledge about taking care and following certain do's and don't's during filling of following forms namely :
- b. Form 1 is an application form for a patent submitted by an applicant filing before the Indian Patent Office (IPO). Further, form 1 also contains a declaration by the Inventor(s) that the Inventor(s) is the true and first inventor for the innovation.

- c. Form 2 furnishes the patent specification or the description of the patent application filed before the Indian Patent Office (IPO). In particular, the specification is either a provisional specification or a complete specification depending on the type of the patent filed by the applicant.
- d. Form 3 is a declaration submitted by the Inventor(s) to the Indian Patent Office (IPO) furnishing all the information/actions relating to patent applications filed in other countries for the present instant invention. In particular, the Inventor(s) provides application number and other details in form 3 of the corresponding applications for patents filed outside India.
- e. Moreover, Form 3 also contains an undertaking that the Inventor will inform the Indian patent Office in writing the details regarding corresponding applications for patents filed outside India within six months if he files any such application.
- f. Form 5 contains the name of the Inventor and a declaration by the inventor that the inventor(s) is the true and first inventor of the subject matter sought to be protected using the current patent application.
- g. Form 9 is filed by the applicant for the publication of the patent specification of the filed patent application by the Indian Patent Office after 18 months from the priority date or date of filing
