CURRICULAR ASPECTS
1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation
1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process
College follows curriculum prescribed by Mumbai University through its Boards of Studies. At the beginning of the year, time table committee provides time tables of theory and practicals for classes across all faculties. These time tables have been adapted for online lectures and practicals during the year on account of pandemic. College uses Microsoft teams for all purposes of communication including teaching and learning. Heads of departments distributes workload, allocates subjects among staff and plans its departmental activities for the year. An effective and well planned curriculum delivery is attained through timely conduct of lectures, supernumerary lectures if required, provision of notes, e-resources, etc. An academic calendar prepared at the beginning of the year by IQAC provides a tentative schedule of examinations and co-curricular and extra-curricular activities like academic festival Srujan, departmental festivals and holidays. Lectures were augmented with special guest lectures, workshops and seminars online. Teachers attended online orientation and refresher courses and workshops of their subjects hosted by other colleges. In fact students also attended online excursions and field visits as executed by Botany and BMS departments, respectively. Films and documentaries are used to explain political developments. In addition, books and journals are recommended for further reference.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

Institution prepares an academic calendar adhering to the calendar prescribed by Mumbai University. The tentative schedule of all examinations are entered into the calendar. As our college is affiliated to Mumbai University, we follow its examination and evaluation process. Students are notified about internal evaluation mechanism in the beginning of the year during orientation programs and details are given to them through ERP. Internal exams are conducted as per the academic calendar. The department of Computer Science and Information Technology conduct online internal examinations for all students. Departments of BMS and BAF conducted MCQ tests for internals. BMM Department conducts various presentations, assignments and internal tests of 25 marks for continuous evaluation. Biotechnology students have internal exams for first and second year students. First year students undertake projects for the Ability Enhancement paper as internal exams. Final year BA students have project assignments and presentations. All Rural Development department students appear for a viva voce test based on syllabi. 5 marks are allotted to attendance and class room participation in the class for internal evaluation for Foundation Course. Mathematics students have internal tests of 25 marks each semester.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

It is noteworthy that University has incorporated aforesaid issues into its CBCS curriculum at various levels in various subjects. Courses in Arts and Commerce have integrated environmental studies in syllabi. The importance of man-environment relationship, their co-existence and its management are inculcated into minds of students.

- ♦ Foundation course is one subject that cuts across various programmes including B.A., B.Sc., B.Com., BMS etc. focussing on human values, gender, environment and sustainability issues across all faculties.
- ♦ Ethics, included in BA-Philosophy in semesters 5 and 6 encourage students to reflect on real world ethical questions, issues they raise, and demonstrate an ability to recognize, articulate, and apply ethical principles in various academic, professional, social or personal contexts
- ♦ Zoology students are given an insight into innovative concepts of ecovillage and ecotourism while botany students gain skills and knowledge about agriculture, forestry, horticulture, plant breeding, etc.
- ♦ Commerce students are introduced to professional ethics in Business Communication. In Auditing, BAF students are taught how to audit independently while following professional ethics.
- ♦ IT-CS students study Ethical Hacking, 'Intellectual Property Rights' and 'Information Security and Cyber Laws'.
- ♦ Guidelines to attain high ethical standards of research are part of research methodology for PhD scholars.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity
2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners Learning levels of students are determined by their entry level marks. Orientation programmes are organized for first year students to familiarize them with examination and assessment patterns of the programme. Students have both internal assessment and external assessment from theory and practical examinations, project assignments, IV reports, PPT presentations and viva voce. Guest lectures of subject experts, eminent speakers from academia and industry, etc. are conducted to facilitate academic interest among students. Through extra lectures, group discussions, project assignments, and personal interaction, faculty members encourage learning among the students. Our library is well equipped with a wide range of reference books. Moreover, students are provided with home assignments, question banks and reference material from recommended authors for review and practice. Online resources are also recommended for further study. Some teachers engage in revision lectures after completion of syllabus. The institution organizes competitive examination guidance lectures for students by eminent people in top government positions. Departmental festivals are held to foster academic creativity and promote innovative thinking. Students are encouraged to participate and present in research conventions like Avishkar organized by the Government of Maharashtra.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Experiential learning : Effective learning is ensured when a student learns theory by participating in activities inside and outside the campus. Our students take part in surveys, projects, research conventions like Avishkar, media festivals, online investment training, ICT workshops, preparing terrariums, etc. Industrial visits and field trips (though held online by a couple of departments like BMS and Botany due to pandemic), increases knowledge and provides hands-on experience, yielding meaningful learning.

Participative learning : Several activities such as poster making, project assignment, group assignment, seminars, power point presentation, online quiz and practicals, RBDT workshops, workshops on research methodology were organized for students under the guidance and supervision of faculty so that students enhance their knowledge through collaborative participation and teamwork.

Guest lectures by eminent academicians and professionals from industry were organized for enhancing knowledge and insights of the subject.

Problem Solving Methodologies: Problem solving sessions using tools like Excel were used in Accountancy. Science students solve many problems based on previously learned theories. Case studies are another way of developing knowledge skills by ways of solving real problems. Students are motivated to explore and express themselves through case studies, group discussions, etc.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process. Write description in maximum of 200 words

All laboratories are ICT enabled with desktops, laptops, printers, projectors, smart boards and Wi-Fi connectivity. Principal's cabin, college office, departments and two digitally equipped classrooms are ICT equipped.

But due to Covid-19 pandemic, teaching, learning and evaluation was facilitated through a dedicated online licensed programme 'Microsoft Teams' which can manage learning material, quizzes, assignments, lab submissions and evaluation. On behalf of IQAC, both non-teaching and teaching staff were extensively trained by experts to use Microsoft Teams effectively. Laptops, desktop computers, mobiles, digital pad with stylus, webcams and microphone were the tools used for teaching and learning. Pdf files were created by scanning handwritten or typed notes and uploaded on Teams for student's reference. Power-point presentations, some enabled with animations and YouTube links, were used for delivering lectures by most of the teachers while others used the digital pad and stylus. Some used Microsoft Excel to solve problems. Images and videos from Google and other sources were effectively used to deliver lectures and practicals. Virtual labs were used to conduct labs through simulations. Meetings involving staff and students were conducted on Microsoft teams, Google meet and Zoom. Examinations and admissions were entirely conducted through the ERP system.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

Internal examinations are conducted by Examination Committee according to the norms laid down by Mumbai University. Students are informed about internal evaluation pattern in orientation programmes as well during lectures in each class. In addition, teachers notify students the topics of test and date of submission in case of assignments on class WhatsApp groups and College Telegram channel. All circulars and notices related to examinations and submissions are displayed on the website. Internal exams are in the form of tests, projects, presentations and viva. They are conducted using Microsoft Teams, office 365 or Google docs applications. In addition to internals tests, BAF and BMS conduct power point presentations. BAMMC conducts presentations, assignments and internal tests of 20 marks. TYBA students deliver project presentations. RD students gave a viva voce test as internal assessment based on selected topics and on guest lectures organised. In Foundation Course, case-study assignments are given to students for 20 marks and they are encouraged to make presentations of their assignments in class to secure 5 marks allotted for attendance and classroom participation. First and Second year Mathematics students have an online internal exam of 25 marks each semester.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

The college has its redressal of examination related grievances in place. Students can approach their teachers, Chairman of Examination Committee or even Principal to address their examination related grievances. Most of the grievances related to internal examinations are received before the declaration of results. In case of non-submission of assignments, a defaulters' list is published by each class teacher on WhatsApp groups. For non-submission on due date, course coordinator and/or concerned teacher verify the genuineness of the student. If students fail to submit assignment or have not appeared for the class test on medical grounds or representing college for sports and cultural events, NCC and NSS camps, then such students are permitted to do so on a given date. Since these exams were conducted online due to the pandemic, some of the grievances were related to poor or no internet connectivity. Retest was conducted for such students.

After declaration of results, errors in the grade card (marksheets) related to marks of internal examinations, attendance record, errors in profile etc. are immediately addressed, corrected and quickly disposed for onward submission by Examination/ERP department. Front office staff of ERP department are instructed for the quick disposal of student grievances.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students.

The institution offers six programmes in conventional B.Sc., nine programmes in B.A. and one programme in B.Com. at the undergraduate level under grant-in-aid system. In addition, there are 6 programmes at the undergraduate level under self-financing scheme. There are 2 PG programmes in Science under grant-in-aid and 2 PG programs in Science and 3 PG programmes in Arts under self-financing scheme. Though the syllabus of every course is designed by the University of Mumbai, programme outcomes and course outcomes are prepared by the HOD of the department along with his staff. IQAC instructs every department to make students aware of COs and POs and their attainment during the initial lecture sessions. Students are instructed to go through the COs and POs of respective courses and programmes that are displayed on the website. The website displays the programmes offered, programme objectives, programme specific objectives and the syllabus along with course objectives and course outcomes.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

All Departments are responsible for completion of syllabi well within time. Extra lectures are conducted if necessary, to finish portions or to help weaker students. Students are evaluated internally through tests, assignments, or project presentations. Semester end examinations are conducted on every course online in the MCQ format for one hour per paper. Each paper consists of 50 questions based on all units. Course outcomes are attained by timely completion of syllabi and subsequent evaluation and result process. They are measured by conducting tests, project assignments, group assignments, seminars, power point presentations, practicals, etc.

Feedback related to curriculum and its learning outcomes was conducted online from students and other stakeholders that ascertains the relevance of a programme and its employability. The student satisfaction survey as required by NAAC also dwells on attainment of programme outcomes through pedagogical practices and institutional operations. Attainment of programme outcomes can be measured through student's progress to HEIs and placements.

3.2 - Innovation Ecosystem

3.2.1 - Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and has initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge

The College has a Research Promotion Committee (RPC) which comprises of teachers from various Departments. The main objective of RPC is to encourage and provide a momentum to research activities among staff and students in the college. The College has collaborative Research publications to its credit with Institute of Chemical Technology, Mumbai, other affiliated degree colleges and Mumbai University, etc. Through University-sponsored Research projects, faculty members from different Departments received funding for their research work. There is a Central Instrumentation Facility in the campus which is equipped with sophisticated instruments. Research facility and ICT centre are developed through DST-FIST funding to induce a research environment in the college. The research publications are shared through Research Gate or through HEI website. Students are encouraged to participate in college level research competitions through poster and project presentations. Students selected from this competition participate in Avishkar, a state level research competition. The College has provided separate seed money to the faculty for Research after scrutinizing the project submitted by the faculty members. Departments like Biototechnology have organised Research Based Pedagogical Techniques (RBPT) workshops to inculcate a research culture among its students.

4.3 - IT Infrastructure

4.3.1 - Institution frequently updates its IT facilities including Wi-Fi

There are around 270 computers with Microsoft licenses of all operating systems and application software spread across different departments, laboratories and administrative offices (of these 192 computers are available to students). All computer labs are under local area network with internet facility provided by TATA leased line of 100 Mbps. An alternate static line of MTNL has been installed as backup of 2Mbps. Networking within campus helps hassle free transfer and sharing of data across different departments. Students can avail of e-mail services, net surfing, uploading and downloading of services necessary to avail benefits with various portals like government scholarships and ERP services. Also required tools are provided to students for their project work on their request. College uses Cyberoam firewall to prevent illegal access of internet. Laptops with good configuration are provided to all science departments. Requirement of up-gradation or replacement of computers is based on syllabus up-dation / revision or damaged products which is gathered from departments. ERP system is implemented in which admission, examination and finance modules are fully functional. Tally ERP 9 is used for accounting purposes. CCTV cameras with a data backup facility of 15 days have been installed all over the campus premises.

5.3.2 - Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/ students representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms)

The college does not have a formal student council . But student leadership is clearly visible in many of the activities performed in the college. NCC(Boys and Girls) have under officers under whose leadership independence days celebrations, NCC Day, NCC residential and non-residential camps, certificate exams and social activities like Swachata Abhiyan, beach cleaning, environmental protection and sustainability programmes, etc. are organised. NSS has its leadership team which organises all social activities conducted throughout the year including blood donation camps, gender equity and woman empowerment programmes, street plays, rallies, workshops, lectures, environmental awareness and protection programmes, Swachata Abhiyan, and many more. Cultural team of students arranges for all activities of the cultural variety throughout the year. After auditions, they arrange for workshops on acting, singing music, etc. This year all programmes went online. A series of four online workshops ABHIVYAKTI on Drama , music, oratory skills and choreography were conducted online for students. The Cultural festival and competition ANTRANG was conducted completely online. Around 20 colleges participated in the event. This event was completely organized by students. In fact several departments like BAF and BMS conducted their festivals Nivesh and EKYAM respectively online.

5.4 - Alumni Engagement

5.4.1 - There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services

Legal formalities of registration and formation of Kirti College Alumni association is almost over. This year some departments organized Alumni meetings online. Several departments invited their alumni to deliver lectures and mentor the current batch of students. Geography department invited their illustrious alumni to advise their students on various career opportunities. CS and IT departments involved expert alumni in a unique mentorship program as guides to final year students in their projects and placements. CS, IT, Statistics and Botany departments invited their alumni to deliver guest lectures and seminars during the annual academic festival SRUJAN. They also counselled students for employment and placement. The pandemic crisis did not permit Botany department to organize field trips and excursions to acquaint students the flora and their characteristics. This was instead achieved by a virtual excursion conducted by Gauri Gurav, a Botany department alumnus. One undergraduate student completed one research paper and poster in Bioinformatics for research competition Avishkar under the able guidance of an alumnus Surendra Sawardekar. TYBCom alumnus Ms. Aakansha Kore who is handling HR activities in her Firm "Blue scope AV Technologies Pvt. Ltd" organized placement activities for our students for the post of Area Sales Officers.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is visible in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management.

Functioning of a college office is a vivid example that reflects commitment of institution towards decentralization and participative management. College is provided with an administrative office equipped with advanced machines like computers, fax, printers, scanners besides qualified staff who diligently and efficiently accomplish their duties. An office mainly deals with matters related to accounts and finance, admissions, student's aid, free-ship, scholarships and provides clerical assistance for maintaining records for communication with university, government, teaching staff, learners, and management.

- Principal is the overall academic and administrative head of college. Under his guidance, Registrar and Office Superintendent deal with activities of college office in accordance with Maharashtra Public Universities Act.

- Registrar is responsible for the work and conduct of every non-teaching staff and coordinates the work between Principal, teaching and non-teaching staff.

- Office superintendent is responsible for the allotment of work to his subordinates like head clerk, senior clerk, stenographer, junior clerk, and support staff with Registrar's approval.

- Head clerk manages accounts and finance.

- Separate teams consisting of senior clerks, junior clerks and support staff are formed to manage accounts and finance, exam and admission, human resources, free-ships and scholarships.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ perspective plan is effectively deployed

The institution has been running PG programmes in Science in the subjects of Chemistry, Zoology and Computer Science and IT. There was a demand for beginning postgraduate courses for Arts in the institution. Besides students who pursued post graduate management courses wanted to do undergraduate programmes in management. So the institution devised the plan of creating an additional division for such students in BMS. A demand was raised in the CDC and Advisory Committee for self finance courses and a resolution to this effect was passed for PG courses in CDC and for BMS respectively in the Advisory Committee on 10/08/2019. The process of affiliation with Mumbai University for PG programmes in English, Political Science, Economics was initiated in 2019-20. In addition, institution placed its requirement for an additional division for Bachelor of Management Studies with the University. With permissions in place, PG programmes were introduced in 2020-21. 12 students enrolled for MA Economics, 24 for MA Political Science, 4 for MA in English and 72 students gained admission for BMS. Faculty of college and several visiting faculty are engaged in teaching students of these courses.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

A high performance institution achieves its vision and mission through the motivated and dedicated performance of all its employees. To this end, an effective performance appraisal system helps to craft highly inspired and dedicated staff. It evaluates the annual performance of employees in academics, research, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.

Appraisal form is designed by university. It seeks information on

- self (Personal information)
- academic contribution
- administrative contribution,
- contribution through committees and cells
- membership of academic bodies
- participation in conferences, workshops
- publications in scopus indexed journals, book publication
- sponsored projects
- consultancy
- innovation and research
- awards, honors, fellowships

Faculty is given the form towards the end of the academic year to assess their annual performance. Self assessment through this performance based appraisal system will enable them to evaluate their academic performance index. This will be beneficial for their career advancements in the form of promotions. After completion of filling the forms, they are submitted to the respective HODs via email which are later submitted to IQAC for further evaluation.

6.4.3 - Institutional strategies for mobilization of funds and the optimal utilization of resources

Funds are collected at the college level through different sources. These funds are deposited centrally with Deccan Education Society, Pune.

Strategy for mobilization of funds

- A budget is prepared by the institution for the next financial year based on the collection of fees from students.
- Requisites from all departments are asked in advance.
- These requisites are first sanctioned from the college development committee.
- After the sanction from College Development Committee, it is sent to the higher authority i.e., the governing body of Deccan Education Society.

Utilization of Funds

After the sanction from the governing body the funds are utilized in the financial year. If the utilization is for a higher value amount, like for eg. maintenance and repair works, etc., then a requisition is sent to DES, Pune. When sanctioned, funds are released by DES to college for its use.

In addition, fees collected are utilized under different heads as following.

- Departments
- Examinations
- Gymkhana

- Laboratories
- Libraries
- Extra-curricular activities
- Departmental Associations
- Developments (repairs and maintenance)
- Institution Minor research projects

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

1. Implementation of ICT tools:

Institution had supplied some classrooms with smartboards and internet connectivity. Some teachers used power point presentations to deliver lectures and supplied notes in pdf format. With the advent of Covid, there has been a paradigm shift in pedagogy. Pedagogy today is ruled by technology. Institution has opted for use of Microsoft Teams as online platform for teaching, learning and communication including delivering and sharing content, online meetings, presentations and lectures, etc. IQAC had initiated a couple of training sessions for staff to use Teams. Students can access online digital repositories for lectures, course materials, e-resources, social media using mobile devices. ERP system has been installed which at present is used for admission, examination and results, messaging, feedback etc.

2. SRUJAN:

An 'academic festival' was initiated by IQAC with express purpose of exposing students to deeper insights of their subjects. It is held for a week in which all departments conduct one or more activities. Seminars, workshops, lectures, quizzes, exhibitions, power point presentations, film shows, interdisciplinary workshops, visits to eminent institutions etc. are organised by departments for benefit of students. In 2020-21, webinars were organized by almost all departments related to curriculum and otherwise.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through IQAC set up as per norms and recorded the incremental improvement in various activities

An academic calendar is prepared in the beginning of the year which gives a tentative schedule of examinations throughout the year both external and internal besides other regular events that feature every year.

College conducts an orientation programme for first year students every year in which they are given a background of the college and its parent institution DES, committees and cells within the college, activities conducted in college and the examination system.

Learning outcomes: Lectures are enhanced by guest lectures, seminars, workshops, debates and discussions. Students are also advised to take part in research festivals like Avishkar. An academic festival Srujan is annually organized over a week to give students a deeper perception of their courses. Teaching and learning focuses on course content and delivery, timely syllabi completion, prompt examinations and results, and academic activities like workshops, seminars, excursions, industrial visits, etc. Online process of pedagogy has exposed students to wide variety of e-resources.

Examination System: College has a robust examination system which conducts both internal and semester end exams.

Results: Students' performance can be gauged by their semester results.

Feedback is collected from students based on curriculum besides a Student Satisfaction Survey as demanded by NAAC.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

College believes in gender equity and equality and makes an effort towards gender sensitization by conducting regular gender equity promotion programs. A three-day webinar series was organized by ICC on 'The Digital Stree Shakti', "Cyber Sakhi, "Building Digital Guardians" for students, teachers, alumni, parents and administrative staff. Objective of programme was to foster digital empowerment, a safe cyber experience and ensure mental well-being in cyber space. An online 'Skill Based Programme' was organized by WDC to celebrate International Women's Day. Ms. Suman Shrivastava, entrepreneur and social worker, was Chief Guest and resource person. Department of Rural Development arranged guest lecture on "Women Empowerment through Self-Help Groups". Two students of T.Y.B.Sc. Statistics, undertook a field-based research project on "Pandemic Brunt to Female Domestic Workers in Mumbai Suburban Region". Department of English has selected paper of "Gender Perspectives" for MA Semester 1. Ladies common room provides a safe place for girls for relaxation and recreation. Ladies washroom is equipped with a sanitary pad vending machine. Campus is under CCTV surveillance. ICC monitors problems of girl students. The college has a strong NCC girls unit with around 100 girls which trains girls to be independent and self-reliant through various camps and events.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Solid Waste: Each classroom and corridors of college are provided with dust bins to collect waste. Waste generated in College includes paper, plastics, glass, metals, foods, etc. For segregation of wet and dry waste, a pair of garbage bins are kept on the ground near the canteen. Cleanliness and sanitation of the college is outsourced to an agency. Housekeeping staff collect, clean, segregate and compile the waste in dustbins (Green and Blue) at designated time intervals. They are emptied into movable cannisters and are collected regularly by BMC waste collector. Use of paper is limited by adopting institutional e-governance.

Liquid Waste: Liquid waste generated by college are sewage, laboratory, and canteen waste. Liquid waste from laboratories and toilets are directed to the septic sewage. This year due to the pandemic, usage of college resources was negligible. Laboratories were not functional and canteen was closed, urinals and toilets were minimally used. Rainwater is channelized from terraces to plant beds along the walls of the college.

E-Waste Management: Electronic waste and computer scrap items generated by electronic equipment are disposed off centrally.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Best practices - 1

1. Title of the Practice :- Srujan: A platform for academic interlocution

2. Objectives of the Practice

To awaken in students the passion for learning within the current education system

3. The Context

Need of a platform to correlate academics with the objective realities of the world.

4. The Practice

It is held through one week of the year

5. Evidence of Success

More than 40 programmes were organised during this week

Best practices - 2

1. Title of the Practice :- Bridging the gap of digital divide - ERP based exams
2. Objectives of the Practice

To automate the examination and result processes using technology.

1. The Context

Benefits of conducting exams systematically and declaring the results within the stipulated time.

1. The Practice

Use of examination module of ERP system to carry out pre-examination , examination and post-examination activities.

5. Evidence of Success

Conduct of exams in a transparent manner and with minimum errors and declaration of results within the stipulated period with least effort.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

They are few as compared to the advantages of using the ERP examination module.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within

200 words

The harmonious synchronization of teaching, learning and exam scheduling process: In our endeavor to provide a wide range of educational facilities to our students, the institution has introduced the MasterSoft College Management System to improve operational efficiency and institutional outcomes. MasterSoft Education ERP Software is a cloud-based software that automates all major processes of an educational institution. Education ERP is a centralized database system that makes information and communication easy across various departments of the institution. The major objective of education ERP system is to integrate the best EdTech modules in an organization for better communication and administration. This has led to a concurrent coordination of teaching, learning and examination process. It also helps educators to streamline all the core activities with the latest technology such as biometrics, business intelligence tools and analytics dashboard that generates precise reports on college admission, enrollment, scholarship, previous academic record, domicile, fees, alerts, attendance and compliance management.
